Coach Biography:

Drayton brings a wealth of experience to the team, both as a former player and a dedicated coach.

This experience allowed him to further refine his skills and gain a deeper understanding of the game, insights that he now brings to his coaching.

Throughout his hockey career, Drayton has earned recognition for his achievements, including being part of the U16 Alliance Championship team, winning the GOJHL Best Defensive Player award, and being selected for the GOJHL Top Prospects Game.

Currently, Drayton serves as an Assistant Coach for the Kitchener Jr Rangers U14 AAA team, where he plays a key role in shaping young athletes' development and fostering a competitive, disciplined culture. His coaching philosophy is rooted in discipline, accountability, and a strong competitive spirit, with a focus on team preparation. Drayton ensures his players are ready to perform at their best both mentally and physically.

Passionate about player development, Drayton is committed to building well-rounded athletes who excel both on and off the ice. He instills a strong work ethic and a sense of pride in his players, helping them grow as individuals and contributors to their team and community.
